CREPUSCULE

크리퍼스큘

Also knows everything wrong.
Why not ask them for permission so they'll know?

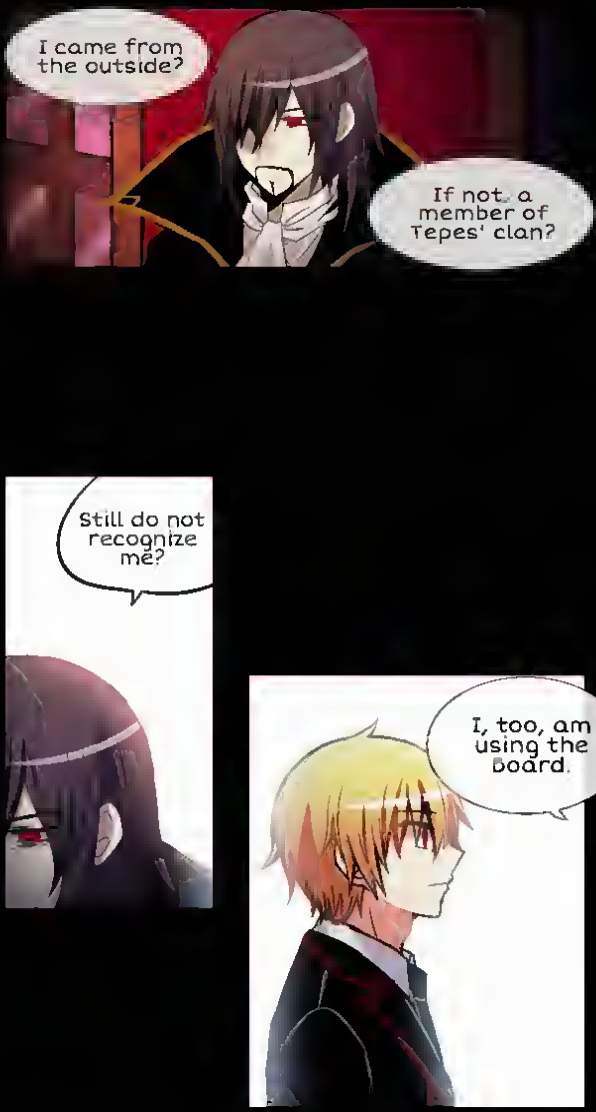
Because I did not hide.

What...?

Setz will hide to avoid you but I wont.
You want to use what's available.

...hmm.
Still against the rule.

I know that you've been generous to me...
Even the old rude forgives.



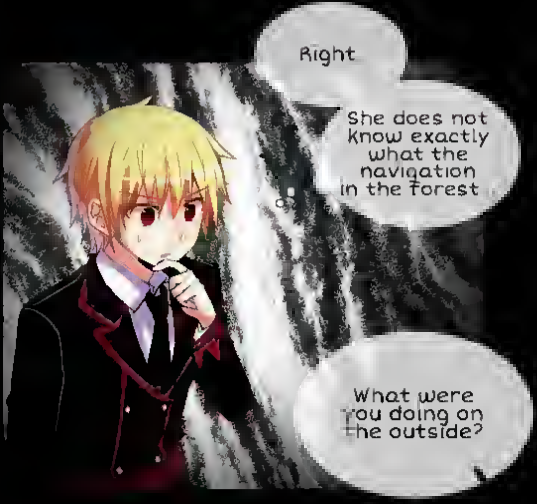
I came from the outside?
If not a member of Tepes' clan?
Still do not recognize me?
I, too, am using the Board.

I know about how rough it is outside.
Yes...?
Want to look for Carmilla?
She is
In the 'forest'.

Forest!?
But there is no path and...!?

Such forests are not a one-dimensional place
If you dare to say exists between the outer world, and another one in this space
Don't you remember the passage out from Nergal?
The same goes for there. You can also get around to float forever beyond the confines of that place
People who knew the old facts knew the in and out through the forest to the outside
They know the way of the world in the forest and how it seems
The only unknown is where Carmilla is.

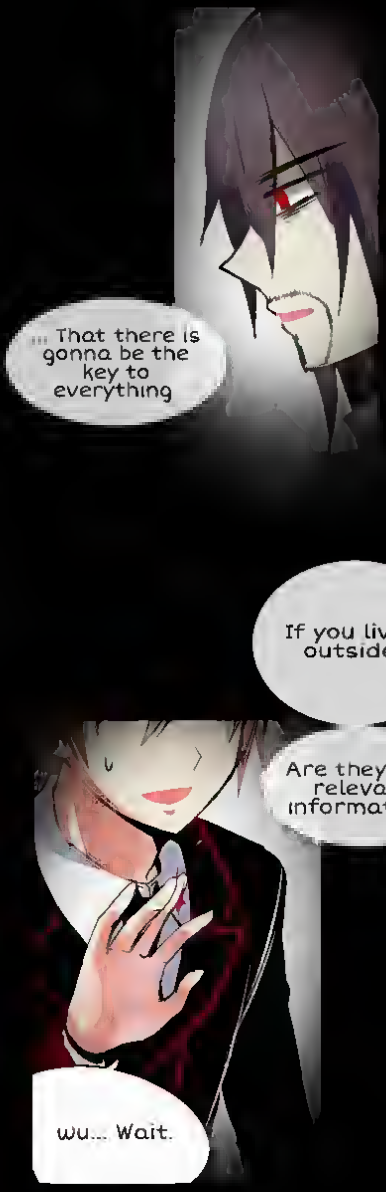
Theresia's not in the village.
Came back after a few months



Right
She does not know exactly what the navigation in the forest
What were you doing on the outside?

Look for a
'red-eyed' human.

Yes?



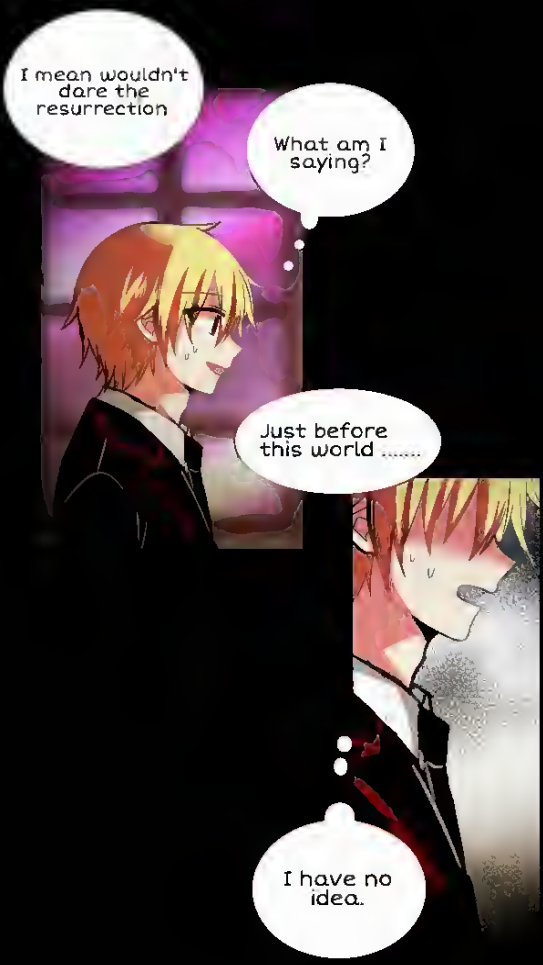
... That there is gonna be the key to everything
If you lived outside.
Are they less relevant information?
wu... Wait.

That...
There is such a thing as a map...
Is news.
Why... you will find...?

...Yes. So it is not surprisingly normal.
ㅎㅎㅎ

There is no need to know anything more.
The important thing is its existence.

If you can not find them, give up on Carmilla's resurrection
It'll be impossible.



I mean wouldn't dare the resurrection
What am I saying?
Just before this world .....
I have no idea.

Why do I need that?
What is the human with red eyes?
Why is it impossible without it?

In the meantime, we have a number of experiments.
But they failed. If the number of remaining'll not only one.
The only thing I can be sure of is I know where Carmilla is in the forest

So if you want to know,

I showed my card already....

Theresia-nim

Queenie was laid and missing.
Missing? huhu.....
Bad girl.

Drag on.
.....
With all due respect, but

Those guys will not complain now because of Lizy rather....
Killing and stealing, and?

You know I can not do that because one is already open
Shut up.. That puny thing is that you have missed the whole

.....
Haha, still a tyrant.
But also you like it.
Well, it's me, but that bitch is dead.
Now, let's go today
Into the Forest
Find 'her'.
